

Hint for Problem 127

A solution to the equations assigns a nonnegative number to each of $1, 2, \dots, m$ so that the nonnegative numbers add to r . Does such an assignment have a combinatorial meaning?