

Hint for Problem 134

The number of partitions of $[k]$ into n parts in which k is not in a block relates to the number of partitions of $k - 1$ into some number of blocks in a way that involves n . With this in mind, review how you proved Pascal's (recurrence) equation.