- ✚ "[I] Learned how others solved problems"
- ✚ "I was able to get other examples for material that I didn't understand."
- ✚ "Deeper knowledge of the course (hints/subtleties)"
- ✚ "Gave me an incentive to study and come prepared"

Do these comments resonate with you? They were offered by your classmates as a result of their work with study groups during 10F. Don't limit your possibilities! JOIN A STUDY GROUP! Go to: <http://www.dartmouth.edu/~acskills/tutors/join.html> for more information!

Study group sign-ups take place online, beginning Thurs, Jan 13 at 8 a.m. and go all day Friday, Jan 14 (see instructions below). Study groups will begin to meet on Saturday or Sunday, January 15th or 16th.

Cost is $30/term (students receiving f/a from Dartmouth pay $10/term)

CASH * CHECK * DA$H

- Go to: <http://studygroups.dartmouth.edu>
- This will bring you to a login page. Click the "login" button. Enter your DND information to get into the registration system.
- This will bring you to the STUDY GROUPS FOR 11W page. It will show all the study groups that are available this term, the leaders and how many spots are available for the study group that is of interest.
- Click on the study group that is of interest and it will display the details, including an option to REGISTER. Click on that button. A message will display that will advise you that your registration has been accepted and that you will need to pay for your participation in the study group.
- The next step is to go to the Academic Skills Center (301 Collis) to pay for the study group. We take DA$H, CASH or CHECK (payable to Dartmouth College). Once your payment has been noted in the system, an email will be sent confirming that your registration is complete, disclosing the location of the group.
